Guidelines for PowerPoint Presentation

Presentation Duration:

- 5-minute presentation followed by a 10-minute discussion.

Your presentation should cover the following points:

1. Proposal Title and Study Objective
   o Clearly state the study title.
   o Provide a concise description of the study's primary objective.
2. Methodology Overview
   o Study Design: Briefly describe the approach and methods (e.g., qualitative, quantitative, experimental).
   o Study Location: Specify where the study will be conducted.
   o Participant Details:
      ▪ Define inclusion and exclusion criteria.
      ▪ State the number of participants.
      ▪ Outline recruitment or selection procedures.
3. Roles and Responsibilities of PI and Co-PI
   o Clearly define the responsibilities and contributions of the Principal Investigator (PI) and Co-Principal Investigator (Co-PI) in the study.
4. Contribution to Knowledge and Societal/Scientific Utility
   o Explain how the study will contribute to new knowledge.
   o Highlight its relevance and potential impact (e.g., societal, clinical, or scientific benefits).
5. Data Collection and Consent Process
   o Data Collection: Specify the methods used (e.g., surveys, interviews, experiments).
   o Consent Process:
      ▪ Describe how informed consent will be obtained.
      ▪ Indicate the format (e.g., written, verbal, or audio consent).
6. Ethical Considerations
   o Vulnerable Populations: If applicable, describe any special measures taken to ensure ethical participation.
   o Conflict of Interest: Disclose any potential conflicts and the steps taken to mitigate them.
7. Duration and Compensation
   o Clearly state the expected study duration.
   o Compensation for Participants:
      ▪ Indicate whether participants will receive compensation.
      ▪ Provide a justification for the decision.

Additional Requirements

Please ensure you have a copy of the following documents:

- Participant Information Sheet
- Informed Consent Form
- Posters or Flyers (if applicable)
- Questionnaires, Worksheets, or Task Descriptions (if applicable)

If you have received specific feedback from the IEC, we highly recommend incorporating the necessary changes. While it is not mandatory, be prepared to address any queries regarding your proposal.
